Highly honoured Sir,

I the undersigned, widow of late Mr. T.C. Palaniswami, Superintendent, Office of the Dewan of Mysore, Bangalore, beg to request that the award of the compassionate gratuity in my husband's behalf may kindly be decided as in the case of one Mr. M. Krishna Rao of the Financial Secretariat taking the pay he was last getting for calculation throughout the number of years of his service and to kindly enhance the amount by two thousand rupees more. I beg to request further that the compassionate gratuity may also be kindly ordered to be paid in lump sum once for all as I have to discharge the heavy liabilities he left behind.

He left behind him 8 helpless children, an old mother and myself. The children are very young, the eldest being about 13½ years and the youngest about 6 months, ol

I humbly request that in view of my husband's devotion to duty, honesty and hard work, the compassionate gratuity may kindly be enhanced and that in view of the pecuniary difficulties it may kindly be ordered t be paid in lump sum.

I shall ever remain grateful.

I beg to remain,
